THE BUILDING ORDINANCE.

THE Hongkong Building Ordinance of 1868, submitted to the Council at the recent meeting, is as important as it is voluminous. Many of its provisions are admirable, while others are highly objectionable, and the Chinese are taking fresh alarm at regulations which they, like many Europeans, consider vexatious and unnecessary. Before alluding in detail to some of the paragraphs in question, it is but fair to admit the very great diffi culties which beset the Governor and Surveyor General's department in framing any measures whatever calculated to lessen the dangers and nuisances to which the careless supervision hitherto exercised over the erection of buildings has given rise. The broad question to be considered is not so much, is this or that

THE CHINESE IN VICTORIA. The following account is of a Chinese meeting at Dunolly as it is reported by the Dunolly Express :- " On Tuesday morning last, in consequence of a dissatisfaction among the children of the Flowery Land in respect to certain moneys which had been subscribed by them for the purpose of exhuming the bodies of their friends who had died and been buried here, and of sending them back to China, a meeting was proposed to be held at the Pound Rush, to talk over the matter, and express their opinion of Sing Kum Le, who had been appointed to manage the fund, and also to audit his accounts; or something of that sort. Feeling was very high upon this affair, and expressions and threats were used, which caused the police to be on the alert: and, to the surprise of the angry Celestials, Sergeant Webb, with a posse comitatus, was on the scene before the formal meeting came off, and by a few judicious remarks, which acted pretty powerfully on the fears of the excited multitude, he induced them to disperse. MISCELLANEOUS.

A shocking case of brutality by a son towards a mother was exposed at an inquest held at Poplar. A woman named Brent had died under circumstances which seemed to make an inquiry necessary, the feeling in the neighbourhood being that the son of the deceased, a returned gold-digger, had caused her death. The woman seems to have been in comfortable circumstances. her husband, who died fourteen months previously, having left her the house in which she lived. A married daughter of the deceased gave the following evidence: In October her son, who had been in Queensland, arrived home. He had gone out as a passenger. He had ill-treated the deceased ever since; he constantly and systematically knocked her about. He was always drunk; and he had not worked more than two months since the time he came home. He was drunk after his mother's death on Saturday, and he pulled her about and out of her coffin. When he could not get money from deceased for drink it was his habit to knock her about. and take away her things by force-in fact, steal them, and pledge them for liquor. He used to spit in her face and swear at her. and often said, "I will not be happy till I see you in your grave or in the workhouse." Two mouths ago he shoved her, hardly dressed, out into the street, and kept her there all night. He poured two gallons of water mixed with mud over her as she stood in the doorway. She said that was her death, for she had never felt warm after that night. He put the mud in the water to make it dirty. All the windows in the place were broken by him and are smashed now. The doctor and some other witnesses having been examined, the coroer said he regretted that on the medical evidence its would be impossible to send the person who was, beyond doubt, morally answerable for the deceased's death, to count of the arrival of Fernão Peres de An- take his trial at the Old Bailey. marks: "The Amoor River, formed by the Shilka and Argoon, is 2,200 miles long, and, with its several tributaries, waters an extensive country, possessing much natural wealth. The productions of Siberia are valuable, and among them gold occupies a prominent place. The value of the gold mined in the provinces of Tomsk and Unniseisk alone amounted to $11,250,000 twenty five years ago, while copper, silver, platinum and iron are found in great quantities near by. Besides these things. Siberia exports furs, skins, timber, fine marbles, jasper and porphyry, diamonds, and salt found in crystals. The imports were $15,000,000 ten years ago, and have greatly increased since, as the population has become more dense. The river enters the gulf of Saghalien, south of the Ochotsk Sea, where the climate is so mild that the shores are rarely frozen. The population of Siberia, excluding Mongolia and Manchooria, is about 12,000,000; including them, 29,000,000. They want sugar, flour, cotton, spirits, wines, woollen goods, powder, machinery, arms, hardware, quicksilver, fruits, paints, medicines and other articles. The distance between Alaska and the Amoor territory is not great, and some commerce has long been transacted between these points. Oregon and San Francisco are geographically more remote, but are better prepared for exchange, and we see that commerce of some amount has already sprung up between the points. This busi ness, coincident with that done with Japan, China and Northern Asia by the existing l'acific Steamship Line, is already stirring our western coast with new life, and there is a parently every reason for believing that the volume of our Asiatic exchange. controlled on the western coast, must immediately swell to unexpected propertions. 2.-No Money Order to include a fractional part of a Penny. 3.—Orders drawn in the United Kingdom upon Hongkong, Shanghai, and Yokobama, will be paid at the rate of Exchange at which Money Orders are being issued at the time of their presentation. 4.—Alphabetical Lists of over 3,700 Money Order Offices in the United Kingdom, shewing the Counties in which they are situated, are hung up for public reference at this Office, and also at Shanghai and Yokohama.

5.—Applicants for Money Orders must furnish, in full, the surname, and, at least, the initial of one Christian name, both of the Remitter and the Payee; if the Remit ter or Payee be a Peer or a Bishop, his ordinary title will be sufficient, if a firm, the usual designation of such firm, such as "Baring Brothers" will suffice; but the mere term Messrs., such as "Messrs. Rivington," or the name of a Company trading under a title which does not consist of the names of the persons composing it, such as "Carron Co." is inadmissible

6. The Remitter on stating that the Order is to be paid only through a Bank, to have the option of giving or withdrawing the name of the Payee; in such case, the Order will be crossed in the same way that Cheques are commonly crossed when they are intended to be paid through a Bank. 7.—When an Order is presented through a Bank, a receipt by any person will be suf ficient, provided the Order be crossed with the name of the receiving Bank, and be the employ of such Bank. 8. The signature of the Payee of a Money Order to be affixed to the Order in the place provided for the purpose. If the Payee be unable to write he must sign the receipt by making his mark in the presence of a Witness, who must sign his name, with his address in the presence of the Officer who pays the Order.

presented by some Person known to be in

9. Should the Payee of a Money Order desire to receive payment in the Country in which the Order was issued, at some other Office than that in which the Order was originally drawn, the transfer will be granted provided the Onler be inclosed to the Postmaster of the Office in which it was drawn. In such case a new Order will be issued, the Commission chargeable upon which will be declared from the amount of the new Order.

10,-In the event of a Money Order miscarrying or being lest, a duplicate will be granted on a written application from the Payee. (containing the necessary particulars, and accompanied by an additional Commission) to the Office where the Original Order was payable.

3111.—On the receipt of a similar application, orders will be given to stop payment of a Money Order, or to renew a lapsed Order. The additional Commission in the last case will be deducted from the amount of the new Order. Lapsed Orders must be presented with the application for a new 12.—But when it is desired that any &c. error in the name of the Remitter or Payee should be corrected or that the amount of a Money Order should be repaid to the Remitter, or that a Lapsed Order should be renewed for payment in the Country in which the Order was originally drawn, application must be made to the Chief Money Order Office of such Country. This application must be accompanied by an additional Commission, unless it have reference to a Lapsed Order, in which case the Commission will be deducted from the amount of the New Order.

13. Repayment whether of an original or renewed, or a duplicate Order, will not be made to the remitter until it has been ascertained that the advice has been caucelled at the Office on which the Order was originally drawn.

14 Payment of an Order must be ob tained before the end of the Sixth Calendar Month after that in which it was drawn for instance, if drawn in January, payment must be obtained before the end of July, otherwise the Order will become lapsed and a new Order (for which a second Commission, to be deducted from the amount of the Order, will be charged) will become 15.—If an Order be not paid before the end of the Twelfth Calendar Month after that in which it was drawn, -for instance, "If drawn in January and not paid before the end of the following January—all claim to the Money will be forfeited, unless, under peculiar circumstances, the Post Office of the Country in which the Order was drawn think proper to allow it.

16.—After once paying a Money Order by whomsoever presented, the paying Office will not be liable to any further claim. If a wrong payment, however, be made owing to negligence on the part of any Officer of the Post Office, the Postmaster General of the Country or Colony in which the negligence occurs will, if he see fit, require the Officer in fault to make good the loss. 17.-No Money Order will be paid unless the advice has been previously received. 18.-Additional Rules for greater security against fraud, and for the better working of the system generally will be made as occasion may require.

19.—Should it appear that Money Orders are used by mercantile men, or others, either in the United Kingdom or at Hongkong, Shanghai or Yokohama, for the transmission of large sums of money, the Bankruptcy; Original Articles; Notes and British or Colonial Post Office, as the case may be, will consider the propriety of in-creasing the Commission, and will exercise the power of wholly suspending for a time the issue of Money Orders.

HIS Medicine is universally admitted to be the most efficacious remedy known to the world. No preparation is so suitable to the climates of India and Uhina as this fine and invigorating medicine. is particularly adapted to the constitution of European ladies, as it is never failing in its effects in all diseases peculiar to females, while those who are attenuated by the debilitating effects of the above climates will find in this wonderful remedy a kind of talisman whereby they may insure a restoration to robust health. HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT.

The science of Medicine has never before produced any remedy that can be compared to this wonderful Ointment, as it cares after all other means have failed, all wounds, sores, ulcers, and also the most inveterate skin diseases peculiar to the climates of India and China. It is the true friend of the Soldier and Civilian, as certain old sores can be removed by it that cannot be conquered by any other treat-

APPENDIX.—Containing Sailing Direc Grasshopper tions for the Coast of China, and for the Japan Islands; also giving the meanings Meeanee of Chinese Words occurring in Charts and Sailing Directions; and also a Table of Po- | Melville sitions of places on the Chinese and Japanese Coasts.

The author in his Preface says :- " The tables in Chap. VII., for estimating prices, Unadilla measurement of goods, exchanges, &c. have been selected from those constantly in use among the foreign merchants in China. Those for calculating the prices of tea in dollars or pence have been copied from the Chen-to more extended tables, by the kind permis Ching-toing sion of the author, P. Loureiro, Esq. The Chin-hai last section of the same chapter on Move- Fei-loong ments in Bullion," has been prepared and Spy furnished for the Guide by Patrick R. Sui-tsing Harper, Esq., of the Commercial Bank of Tien-po India at Hongkong, who has had much experience in the exchanges and movements of the precious metals in Eastern Asia.

"The - ppendix of Sailing Directions has been reprinted from the 'China Pilot.' With short interruptions, the coasts from Singapore to Hakodadi are all described in it; and for the Chinese coasts, the Directions have been improved by the insertion of the Chinese characters for the names of all places that could be ascertained."
